The Honorable David Richardson
Administrator
Federal Emergency Management Agency
500 C Street SW, 8th Floor
Washington, DC 20472

Dear Administrator Richardson,

I would like to thank you for the months of service FEMA has dedicated to the people of Central Texas as they recover from the disastrous floods earlier this year. My office has been advised of FEMA's efforts to serve our community. Nevertheless, recent reporting by The Texas Tribune regarding disaster assistance has raised questions surrounding the responsiveness and comparable results that certain victims of the floods are receiving.¹

As such, I respectfully request a briefing to understand FEMA's engagement to ensure that the needs of Texans affected by this disaster are continuing to be met while we continue to navigate the lapse in federal funding caused by the political motivations of Democrats in Washington.

Sincerely,

Chip Roy
Member of Congress
